LAMBETH

*Working together,
through treatment,
towards recovery*

Would you like practical help and guidance from someone who has been through the treatment system and understands what you are going through?

Aurora Project Lambeth volunteers can help you with:

- Everyday practicalities that can sometimes feel overwhelming, including form filling and accessing information around a variety of subjects.
- Getting you socially active, by accompanying you to meetings and social clubs that are available in the borough.
- Difficult appointments, by attending them with you, including meetings at the Job Centre and housing providers.

Aurora Project Lambeth offers you the opportunity to meet someone on a regular basis who has been through treatment for substance use and can empathise with you.

If you would like to be referred to our service, speak to your key worker about it today.

LAMBETH

*Working together,
through treatment,
towards recovery*

Aurora Project Lambeth is a social enterprise based in the London borough of Lambeth. The project offers support to people who are in, or about to go through, treatment for substance use within the borough through a Volunteer Peer Mentoring scheme.

The Aurora Project Lambeth offers motivational support by matching clients to volunteers who can help with:

- Everyday practicalities that can sometimes feel overwhelming, including form filling and accessing information around a variety of subjects.
- Getting clients socially active, by accompanying them to meetings and social clubs that are available.
- Difficult appointments, by attending them with the client, including meetings at the Job Centre and housing providers.

Aurora Project Lambeth is a service designed to work in partnership with key workers and other professionals in the Lambeth Treatment Consortium offering clients a peer mentoring service which provides support from volunteers who have been through the treatment system themselves. Volunteers at Aurora Project Lambeth complete an extensive training programme that enables them to offer a professional and friendly service to clients. Referring a client is a quick and simple process.
